Audacity 2.0.3 can now be found on."I just did the best song I ever did in my career for two hours in a half-hour episode," said Grey's Anatomy star Jesse Williams, explaining his song from the TV drama's upcoming season finale, "I Can't Stand the Rain." It's a bold statement, but he's certainly not the first man to say it. Not to be crude, but sometimes it's easier to look at a woman's eyes than her ass. "I don't mind looking at her eyes, I don't mind looking at her lips, I don't mind looking at her shoulders, I don't mind looking at anything, but what I mind is going to this ass that's in the back seat of the car," Grey's Anatomy's Derek Shepherd, whose character had bedded both Meredith Grey's lover Mark Sloan and her boss Maggie Pierce (the former of whom has a tendency to let her eyes tear up during her sestrally moments) said recently. Four songs from The Vampire Diaries' musical episode with a bookend from pilot episode are now available on iTunes, while the rest will roll out on the official soundtrack album later this year. Sebastian Stan's character, Klaus, is not a guy with a lot of moral chage. In fact, he's all about kicking people into the next century or two. Well, at least, until he's given time to consider his actions and how they're affecting everyone around him. It's probably the moral high ground he wants to take; it's the only way he can think of to admit he's made mistakes. Next Friday, Franklin, the Vampire Diaries series finale, will premiere — which means there's a good chance the show's hiatus will be over. But for fans who've been waiting to see how the show will wrap up, there's good news. The finale is a musical episode, 0cc13bf012
