Good luck! ?Debunking Jimmy Kimmel's "War On Christmas" As the "War on Christmas" comes to a close, two stories related to the holiday have been debunked by fakestafarians. The first is a hoax started by Jimmy Kimmel a few years ago. In 2011, Kimmel got his troops in on the act. His show was promoting a new holiday - "Father's Day". The points of the hoax were: 1. Father's Day is a new holiday, not recognized by a lot of people. 2. Father's Day is named after the military. 3. Americans don't have a holiday named after the military. 4. "Happy Father's Day" is a TV trademark of Hubbell Inc. (joke) We can tell the joke is pretty old, but maybe you didn't know about it. The day before Father's Day, Kimmel had his guests on and made the joke. What makes us sad is that this joke is getting some exposure. We want to set the record straight. The second is our own "Dad of the Year"
