It says The Rust language team is actively maintaining the Rust 2.0 Beta branch. And I am confused about what it means. A: Rust 2.0 is the reference release. It's stable, has no breaking changes, is actively developed, has no known issues, is ready to use and there's not much more we can do to improve it. Rust 2.0 Stable is an updated version of Rust 2.0. It follows the same release schedule and is thus "stable", but it contains new features, bug fixes and
