eastertide 2019 was the year that everyone in fortnite stopped killing each other, and it was a spectacular event. although the isle of storm season 7s patch wasnt as big of a deal as the halloween event, it did include some new content that was pretty surprising. season 7s anniversary is coming up on may 3, 2020, and will come with 50 tickets to get a free dedicated server from epic. best buy also released a new season 7 pack and a new crusher pack. its also the year that players can now choose between two in-game emojis, a dog and a pig. season 7 came to a close on october 1st, 2020, so it was a pretty big one to end the year. if you hate anything at all about the character youre playing, you can always get the rogue one outfit. this outfit was available from the very start of the game back in the early days and remained available until it was removed from the item shop on december 11, 2016. even if you wanted to play as multiple characters, there was only ever one rogue one outfit. its currently unknown why it was removed, but it may be added to the item shop again at some point. it has also been a few years since the rogue one outfit was removed from the item shop, and we hope it makes a comeback. season 5 of fortnite introduced new emotes, but we have to say that the trumpet man is pretty funny. its a tribute to president donald trumps renegade decision on vietnam war. it even has an old-school trumpette emote and makes fun of his foreign policy. regardless of how you feel about it, its a great fortnite skin, as you can see.

good luck getting your hands on the avengers-themed skin, cap. the skin was exclusive to the marvel royalty and warriors packs that dropped in april 2020. the skin looked impressive, and brought in 2,000 v-bucks. however, in early may 2020, it was revealed that the skin would be removed from the item shop, and is not likely to appear again. aside from not being available for purchase, the avengers-themed skin also still has a remaining balance due of around 50,000 v-bucks. as of now, the skin has not made a return appearance, though it is entirely possible that the skin may end up popping up somewhere else in fortnite in the future. we wouldn't want the surprise element to take away from your good luck! unsurprisingly, its the star wars pack that comes with this fortnite skin. this legendary skin was introduced in the star wars battle pass event in january 2020 and was only available for a period of time. even though its not an appropriate star wars skin, it did bring in 1,500 v-bucks. it has not been added back to the item shop since the event and has been removed from sale altogether. the reason is unknown. probably one of the best skins in the fortnite game, vader is a fitting tribute to the late actor carrie fisher, who passed away in december 2016. this legendary skin was introduced in the star wars battle pass event in january 2020 and was only available for a period of time. even though it's not a fitting star wars skin, it did bring in 1,500 v-bucks. it has not been added back to the item shop since the event and has been removed from sale altogether. the reason is unknown. 5ec8ef588b
