PosterPrint will automatically set the scale of the document to fit to the desired physical dimension. For example, if you print the poster on a 3.5m x 2.5m poster, PosterPrint will automatically print the document on a single sheet of paper. In this case, PosterPrint will continue to automatically set the scale of the document to fit to the desired physical dimension. For example, if you print the poster on a 3.5m x 2.5m poster, PosterPrint will continue to print the document on a single sheet of paper. By default, the "\"Brother [model name]\" printer driver has added properties related to the physical device and software related to the printer driver. For example, it contains properties such as the serial number of the printer, the country where the printer is sold, the number of pages of the printed document, the number of copies of the printed document, the total cost of the print job and the date the printer driver was created. i bought this for my friend, it looks like a vintage paper. the paper is great and very big in size. everyone got to know when they took a look at it. it was a perfect product for my friend. I will certainly recommend this product to my friends. Great seller, quick shipping, easy to print. I will certainly buy from this seller again. 5 STAR Seller. Fast and reliable service.
