Privnote For Windows 8 Crack With Serial Key Free

Privnote is a handy and reliable application that provides the possibility to create notes that will self-destruct upon being read. Simply write your note, after which the application generates a link that can be accessed only once. After the other person reads the note, the link will no longer be available. If you are the first to read the note, it will disappear automatically. You can have different kinds of notes, both for reading and for being read. You can also add pictures, video or audio files. In addition, notes can be password-protected. You can decide on how many people can access your notes. Privnote is an ideal tool for creating notes that you don't want others to read. Privnote can be used for every occasion, such as: * creating presentations * writing reports * keeping secrets * personal notes and diaries * passwords * doing research * explaining certain things * for keeping clients and employees Please read Privnote home page for more details. Privacy is important to all of us. Therefore, we try to keep the privacy settings as high as possible, so only the note writer can see the note. This way, the notes will disappear automatically after the other person has read them. The notes will remain available until the note writer is offline, so even if the other person reads the note, it will disappear when the writer logs in again. Please don't use this application as a social networking tool. You are free to share the link of the note with whom you want, but in this way the notes will remain available indefinitely.
