PROVIDENCE, R.I. - A self-proclaimed gang leader and former bandit is suing government and police agents seeking $10 million, claiming they thwarted a plan to blow up bridges, storm nuclear power plants and punish his former enemies. Jean Pierre Rodrigue said in an interview that he had an "unofficial hit list" of nearly 30 nuclear plants and others thought to be "committing crimes" against him and his associates. "It's a dirty game," Rodrigue said through a translator, adding that the government or police, which he doesn't identify, could "put a bullet in my head, in the
